Senior Class Will

We, Janet Ann and Janice Sue Wassenberg leave our togetherness to Trudy Carsh and Allen Fankhauser.

I, Carol Fankhauser, leave my ability to say the wrong thing at the wrong time to Cheryl Farwell.

We, Jack Farwell and Eldon Snoke leave our attempt to be innocent to Neal Ham.

I, Sue Ann Friedly, leave my several romances to Susie Snoke.

I, Linda Kanel, leave my six-cylinder giggle to Donna Glather.

I, Pam Prater, leave my winsome voice to Debbie Kuhlmann.

I, Jerry Jun, leave my quiet manner to Carl Schuetz.

I, Harold Hunzeker, leave my beauty naps in study hall to Ron Fankhauser and Greg Stevens, also I leave my striped gears and spent rubber to George Dunlap.

I, Karen Pennington, leave my loving ability to Trudy Carsh and Allen Fankhauser.

I, Matt Daniels, leave my ultra-masculine laugh to Roger Owings to entertain next year's speech class.

I, Calvin Kunze, leave my ability to become blushing red to Judy Fankhauser.

I, Jim Thompson, leave my mischievous ways to Roxann Hill and Steve Burow.

I, Joel Wenzel, leave my paper back books and comic books so other leisure-hurt students can read them.

We, Nancy Johnson and Nancy Hunzeker, leave our good grades to Connie Goos and Delores Taylor.

We, Vicky Vaughn and Loretta Hallauer, leave our cheerful and gay personalities to Shirley Wassenberg.

We, John Massey, Steve Cheuvront, Dick Rist, Rodney Merwin, Jay Hagerman, Mike Bernecker, Jerry Schmid, and Keith Moyer, leave our unusual athletic ability to next year's basketball, football and track teams.

I, Patty McNeely, leave all my Peanuts books to Mr. Cressy's future pest.

I, Echo Gibbs, leave my artistic ability to Virginia Bourlier.

I, Jay Keeton, leave all my girls in Falls City to Sonny Gordon, Steve Lewis, and George Dunlap.

I, Dale Hunzeker, leave all my parking places to Gary Gridley.

I, Janet Banzhof, will anything I have to Sally Stevicks, if she can use it and if she can find it.

I, Tom Albin, leave my ability to play the cornet to Jay Stalder.

I, Janice Lorenson, leave my typing ability to Mr. Cress's future secretary.

We, Mary Ellen Colson and Wilma Loennig leave our secret diets to all the Junior girls.

I, Rogene Meyer, leave my ability to keep quiet????? during English class to Cheryl Farwell.

I, Mary Bourlier, leave my seat in the clarinet section of the band to Debbie Kuhlmann, Doris Wissler, and Connie Goos.

I, Doreen Kuhlmann, leave my influence over the opposite sex to Susie Snoke.

I, Peggy Gerdes, leave my loud gum chewing to the future Bookkeeping class and my great ability to skate to Doris Wissler.

I, Bev Douglas, will my excellent driving record and all the learning I didn't absorb in these last four years to Donna Glathar.

I, Bob Coonce, leave my outstanding size to John Williamson.

I, Dee Dee Wittwer, leave my ability to twirl the baton to Marlene Penkava.

I, Nancy Billings, leave my ability to plan parties to anyone who wants them.

I, Norann McGinnis, leave my winning ways to Roxann Blecha.

I, Sharon Moyer, leave my past boy-friends to all the Junior girls.

I, Candy Buss, leave my ability to be a loving wife to Eileen Boydston.

We, the Senior boys, will to Jerry Nemechek the ability to ask girls for dates.

To the whole high school, we leave our shining marks, to be a goal for next year's crop.

To all of the Juniors, we leave our untarnished, proud name, our dignity, and our ability as a class.

We beseech them sincerely to preserve, honor, and live up to this worthy name and to keep the tradition and history of ourselves as a pattern, and to remember us reverently.
